

The Mauricetown Historical Society in conjunction with the Cumberland County Cultural and Heritage Commission, Citizens United to Protect the Maurice River and the Barn studio of art will once again sponsor Artists Day in Cumberland County.

This is a celebration of local artists who will be displaying their works in the form of plein air painting about the village. In addition, there will be crafters, food music and activities for the whole family available at the Compton House Museum grounds.

This year's date is Saturday, September 13, 2014 from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

If you are a Cumberland County artist and would like to participate, please call Matt Pisarski at the Cumberland County Planning Office (856-453-2175) for details.

If you are a crafter and would like a space for the day, please contact Carol Perrelli at 856-785-1372.

1. Spaces are assigned when payment is received, only a limited number of spaces are available.
2. Cost is $25 per space and is not refundable.
3. Checks should be made out to the Mauricetown Historical Society. Our address is PO Box 1 Mauricetown, NJ 08329.
4. All spaces will be numbered and you will receive a corresponding number indicating your paid space.
5. Crafters should provide their own tents, chairs and tables. Electricity will not be provided.
6. You may set up no earlier than Saturday morning at 8:00 AM.

Crafters please provide the following information with your table reservation:

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

Email _____

Type of Craft _____

For MHS use only:

Date Check Received _____ Space Number _____